CULLIVOE UP HELLY AA 2001

This years Jarl, Steven Henderson, alias Harold Harfager, was appointed at short notice when Johnnie Clark was forced to pull out owing to family circumstances. And no better man to do it. True, it's Steven's debut in the Jarl Squad but he comes with an impeccable pedigree. His father Robert was the Jarl in 1969 and older brother Trevor was the Jarl in 1995. Steven is the latest of a long line of Jarls who started their Up Helly Aa lives in the prolific school squad. Steven has surrounded himself with an able squad, a fine balance of youth and experience.

Ex Jarl Robert Thomson is someone very knowledgeable about costume, boot making, leather-work, badge and helmet making. In every way Robert is a sound man to have, a great Jarl's aide.

Campbell Dickie, like the Jarl, is making his debut in the Jarl Squad. No doubt it will prove good experience for a man who is destined to be Chief Guizer in the not too distant future.

Hubert Dickie, Campbell's father, was Jarl in 1976 and has made numerous appearances in the Senior Squad since. Hubert is one who really enjoys his festivals, his enthusiasm and experience makes him a great Viking.

Ian Anderson, sometimes known as 'Orkney Ian', was the first Stromness man ever to be in the Jarl Squad. Now he makes it for a second time. Who knows – his all round ability and skill with the spoons may take him all the way to the top.

Kevin Tulloch is another who should be Chief Guizer at some future festival. Kevin, although young, has been in squads from his earliest days at Primary School. A hard worker within the squad, he is much appreciated.

Lawrence Tulloch is the oldest man in the squad, a hoary old veteran of many a campaign. He was Jarl in 1980 and this is, in all, his seventh time in the senior squad.

Callum Watt, by contrast, is at three the youngest. Callum is the grandson of Hubert and Lauren Dickie. This is his very first Up Helly Aa and one that, young as he is, he will always remember.
