Wir Guizer Jarl - Steven Brown

Our Chief Guizer this year is Steven Brown from Burravoe, South Yell. He has chosen to represent King Logi Fornjotson.

This is Steven's third time in the Jarl Squad, having previously been in Robert (Halfdan the Black) Thomson's squad in 2000 and Craig (Sweyn Asliefsson) Dickie's squad in 2020.

A long time supporter of Cullivoe Up Helly Aa, he started his squad adventures in the fledgling "Mid Yell squad" in 1993, and then went onto the Burravoe squad in the 2000s.

Steven works for EnQuest at the Sullom Voe Oil Terminal, where he is part of the Emergency Response team and the Operations team, loading oil over the jetties and onto the ships that come in to berth. Over the weekend, Steven and his squad will be raising money for Alzheimer Scotland, as well as the Macmillan Nurses Shetland Branch.

A foreword from the Jarl:

"I sensed something in the air when I came home to a noisy household full of the Dickie clan, and then a moment of shock when Craig asked me to be the next Jarl.

I sensed something in the air when I came home to a noisy household full of the Dickie clan, and then a moment of shock when Craig asked me to be the next Jarl. But after a quick chat with my wife Marina, I accepted the honour and have relished taking on the role. After two hard years of waiting due to the Covid pandemic restrictions, there is a real sense of excitement to get Up Helly Aa going again, although the committee did an exceptional job over those years with the online festival and the Raven Banner Ball.

None of this would be possible for me if I didn't have the love and support of Marina and my two daughters, Lucy and Kerry, by my side, organising and keeping me right. I am hugely grateful for their support. Also huge thanks must go to all my squad members, musicians and galley builders, for keeping things going and supporting me along the way.

I would like to thank Enquest and Sullom Voe Terminal for their generous sponsorship of this year's programme. Thanks also to the Up Helly Aa committee and to all those who help out in the background in any way during the run-in and to the hosting of the events. What community spirit. So many people required to do so many different things. You oil the wheels - I give hearty thanks to you all!

'It'll over in a flash, embrace it all!', I've been told. Well, I've had that feeling twice, but leading my squad up through the ranks is what I am really looking forward to.

I hope you all have a great Up Helly Aa 2023.

Skól!"

Jarl Squad Introductions

Craig Dickie: 2020's Jarl, eager to pass the torch to Steven after 3 long years. Probably the longest-reigning Jarl in Cullivoe Up Helly Aa history, likely the cause of a few grey hairs.

Brian Spence: Jarl-elect for 2024, local Up Helly Aa stalwart/rockstar. Brian's knowledge and enthusiasm has been a huge support and we wish him all the best for his reign in 2024!

Kerry Brown: Steven's youngest daughter with a fiery personality. A musician like her sister – unsure if the talent came from their Dad. She has gotten stuck into all the preparation and has tackled every challenge. She is not afraid to tell her dad what he is doing wrong!

Lucy Brown: Steven's eldest daughter who despite living in Sandwick is still a Yell lass at heart. It's clear that the lasses get their artistic abilities from their mother as they have all taken on the task of making the head and tail of the galley, as well as the Bill head. Her music and nursing skills may come in handy over the weekend.

Ross Stewart: Lucy's fiancé the fisherman. Ross had his best catch in 2016 when he reeled in Lucy, and they are looking forward to their new arrival in July. Ross is no novice to Up Helly Aa as he takes part in a squad for Lerwick's festival and is due to reeried in Lucy, and they are looking forward to their new arrival in July. Ross is no novice to Up Helly Aa as he takes part in a squad for Lerwick's festival and is due to be in the Jarl Squad there in 2026.

Ogilvy Brown: Steven's father, not quite the oldest Viking in Cullivoe Up Helly Aa history but getting there! His craftsmanship has been put to the test while building the galley and keeping the youngsters on the right track!

Laurence Hunter: Steven's brother-in-law Laurence is looking forward to the challenge of being in the Cullivoe Jarl squad. He is no stranger to Up Helly Aa as he was in the Lerwick Jarl squad in 2012.

David Kane: Steven's brother-in-law from Glasgow. Not sure how he will feel about donning the rival colours. David is looking forward to joining Steven in the squad.

Haydn Brown: A last-minute substitute for his dad Kevin, and easier on the eye. A talented musician and singer who will no doubt rise to the challenge of keeping the squad in tune.

Neil Nicholson: Local man and obvious choice for the squad, Neil was Jarl in 1992; now older, but wiser? Neil's carpentry is legendary, and he has been a great asset to the galley building as well as other woodwork projects. He is also a dab hand with a slippery nipple!

Angus McNeil: A Cullivoe man who is returning to his roots to join Steven and the squad. Both Angus and Steven share a passion for sailing but have put their rivalry aside for the sake of their shipmates. Hopefully the galley doesn't capsize but just in case, Angus has made some safety helmets.

Douglas Leask: Another fellow sailor and newbie to Cullivoe Up Helly Aa. If the Viking thing doesn't work out, he could bust some moves in his white suit. Douglas has helped hugely over the winter and has been a calming influence on the squad.

Daniel Clark: Part of the South Yell squad alongside Steven; it's good to have a younger member to help protect the elders in battle. Daniel has been a regular attendee at the Galley Shed and has tried to keep the peace between father and son.

Mark MacBeath: Another member of the South Yell squad. Mark has skilfully tackled some tricky jobs during the preparations, and has demonstrated his patience and perseverance. These skills will no doubt be put to the test by he and Denise's new arrival in April.

Barney Harris: The squad Wildcard all the way from Washington D.C., Barney and Steven have been great pals since meeting at the Albacore World Championships in 2001. The furthest-travelled Viking, making a return to Shetland full of enthusiasm. Make sure to give him a warm welcome and go easy on the Fireball!

2001: The furthest-travelled viking, making a return to Shetland full of enthusiasm. Make sure to give him a warm welcome and go easy on the Fireball!

THE HOUSE BAND

Andy "Shakin" Stephen: Surely must be Shetland's busiest man in Up Helly Aa season. Very rarely misses a spree, and goes nowhere without guitar in hand. Andy will no doubt entertain us once again with his strong vocals, and infectious laugh.

Brian Nicholson: It's hard to believe this will be Brian's first time as a musician at Cullivoe Up Helly Aa. This Yell man is a more than accomplished musician with several bands including Hom Bru. We are delighted to have him in the ranks.

Stewart Grains: 1994's young fiddler of the year; Stewart has great experience of being a squad musician in Up Helly Aas all over Shetland, however this will be his first outing in Cullivoe. Stewart is a jovial sort, and will no doubt add fun as well as tunes to the weekend.

George Spence: Another young fiddler of the year completes the quartet. George is the youngster of the group, but will no doubt hold his own in fine company.

The Up Helly Aa Song

(first verse & chorus)

From grand old Viking centuries Up-Helly-Aa has come,
Then light the torch and form the march, and sound the rolling drum:
And wake the mighty memories of heroes that are dumb;
The waves are rolling on.

CHORUS:

Grand old Vikings ruled upon the ocean vast,
Their brave battle-songs still thunder on the blast;
Their wild war-cry comes a-ringing from the past;
We answer it "A-hoy!"

Roll their glory down the ages,
Sons of warriors and sages,
When the fight for freedom rages,
Be bold and strong as they!

(Words by J.J. Haldane Burgess)

(Music by Thomas Manson)

*(Words by Sir Hakdane Burgess)
(Music by Thomas Manson)*

The Galley Song

(first two verses)

Floats the raven banner o'er us,
Round our Dragon Ship we stand,
Voices joined in gladsome chorus,
Raised aloft the flaming brand.
Voices joined in gladsome chorus,
Raised aloft the flaming brand.

Every guizer has a duty,
When he joins the festive throng,
Honour freedom, love and beauty,
In the feast, the dance, the song.
Honour freedom, love and beauty,
In the feast, the dance, the song.

(Written by John Nicolson, to the tune of an old Norwegian folk song)

The Saga of Logi Fornjotson

“Out of the Orkneyinga Saga came the legend of a king named Fornjot, who was said to be a giant, and he ruled over Gotland, which we now know as Finland and Kvenland.

He had three sons, Ægir (who ruled over the seas), Logi (who ruled over fire) and Kári (who ruled over the wind).

I have chosen to portray Logi Fornjotson, King of Hálogaland, which was in the far north of Norway.

Born around the year 360, Logi was the most handsome of men, but with the strength and size of the giants from whom he was descended.

As Logi was larger and stronger than any other man in the land, his name was lengthened to Hálogi Fornjotson, and from that name, the country was called Hálogaland.

name was lengthened to Hálogi Fornjotson, and from that name, the country was called Hálogaland.

The saga tells that Hálogi's wife was called Queen Glöd Grimsdatter, or Gloð (which translates to 'red-hot embers'), and they had two daughters, Eisa Logisdatter (translating to "glowing embers") who was born around 380 and Eimyrja Logisdatter (translating to "embers") who was born around 390.

As the first king of Hálogaland, Logi passed away around 419 at the age of 59, which was a grand old age for the time.

I chose to portray King Logi Fornjotson, as I found some common ground with him. Like Logi, I am married with two daughters, and I have been associated with fire most of my working days, having been in the Emergency Response team at Sullom Voe oil Terminal since the early 90s.

I have called my galley 'Ægir Kári' after the two brothers of Logi, so the Galley name roughly translates into 'Sea Wind', or as I like to look at it from a Shetland perspective, 'Sea Storm'."
